DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/15/2004 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 20-23, 33-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims embrace an antibody as it occurs in vivo. However, since it would that applicants do not intend to claim a naturally occurring product, such as an antibody circulating in a mammal, amending the claims to require the hand-of-man would obviate this rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, second paragraph

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 20-23, 30, 34-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1646

Claim 20(b) recites "a nucleotide sequence which is degenerate to the nucleotide sequence of (a) as a result of the genetic code", which recitation is incorrect. The claim should be amended to recite "a nucleotide sequence which is degenerate to the nucleotide sequence of (a) as a result of the degeneracy of the genetic code".

Similarly claims 30(b), 34(b), and 35(c), which recite the above rejected limitation, should be amended appropriately to obviate this 35 USC 112, second paragraph rejection.

Claims 21-23, are rejected as vague and indefinite insofar as they depend on claim 20 for their limitations.
